

A Fellow Chartered Accountant of Singapore, Mr Teo Ser Luck is the President of the Institute of Singapore Chartered Accountants (ISCA). He is also Chairman of the ISCA Executive Committee, which oversees ISCA's policies and strategies, as well as operational and financial matters.

Mr Teo was Advisor to ISCA from 2009 to March 2022 and he championed the formation of the ISCA Young Finance Leaders Network in 2018. He also facilitated members' engagement through dialogue sessions with government leaders to share challenges faced by the accountancy industry and profession in 2019 and 2020.

Mr Teo is an entrepreneur, investor and started his own companies in different sectors. He started his career as an auditor and spent 15 years in the private sector managing multi-national companies and operations in the Asia-Pacific region, before being elected as a Member of the Parliament of Singapore in 2006 and appointed as a full-time Minister of State and Mayor in the Singapore government. He returned to the private sector in July 2017 and remained as a Member of Parliament till June 2020.

Mr Teo was recognised as a young global leader by the World Economic Forum and was thrice conferred the Nanyang Alumni Awards - the Nanyang Outstanding Young Alumni Award, the Nanyang Alumni Achievement Award and the Nanyang Distinguished Alumni Award from the Nanyang Technological University (NTU). Apart from having his own companies, Mr Teo is also the Chairman and board director of listed companies on the main board of SGX. He is Advisor to the Singapore Fintech Association.

Mr Teo graduated with a Bachelor of Accountancy from NTU. He is an avid sportsman who trains daily and participates in races and loves to read.