

BENEFITS FOR HOUSEHOLDS (ILLUSTRATIONS)

Example A: Benefits received from Budget 2011 by a family of five living in a 5-room HDB flat.

Husband is 51 years old and earning $6,000 a month. Wife aged 48 is a homemaker. They live in a 5-room HDB flat with two children, one in primary school and the other in a polytechnic, and a 78-year-old grandmother.

Budget 2011 Benefits
'Grow & Share' Package
Growth Dividends	$1,900
PIT Rebate	$160
CPF Medisave Top-up	$1,000
U-Save Rebate	$200
S&CC Rebate*	$31
Total 'Grow & Share' Benefits	$3,291 (4.6% of annual household income)
Others
Removal of RTV Licence Fee	$110
Additional Edusave Top-up	$130
Enhanced Polytechnic Bursaries	$550
Total Other Benefits	$790
Total Budget 2011 Benefits	$4,081 (5.7% of annual household income)

Example B: Benefits received from Budget 2011 by a family of 4 living in a 3-room HDB flat

Husband is 39 years old and earning $1,300 a month. Wife aged 36 works part-time and earns $700 a month. They live in a 3-room HDB flat with two children, one in childcare and the other in primary school.

Budget 2011 Benefits
'Grow & Share' Package
Growth Dividends	$1,700
Workfare Special Bonus (WSB)	$780
Child Development Credit	$400
U-Save Rebate	$220
S&CC Rebate *	$38
	(13.1% of annual household income)
Total 'Grow & Share' Benefits	$3,138
Others
Removal of RTV Licence Fee	$110
Enhanced Centre-based Financial Assistance Scheme for Childcare (CFAC)^	$135
Additional Edusave Top-up	$130
	$375
	(14.6% of annual household income)
Total Budget 2011 Benefits	$3,513