Ms Teo Lay Lim (张丽琳)
Senior Managing Director
Accenture

Lay Lim is a Senior Managing Director at Accenture, and holds 2 roles concurrently - as Geographic Unit Managing Director for ASEAN, and Country Managing Director of Singapore. She is also a member of Accenture's Global Leadership Council.

Lay Lim joined Accenture on March 1, 1988. She has held several leadership roles, which include the setup of Accenture's Customer Relationship Management service line in 2000, and for eight years was the Asia Pacific managing director for the CRM Service line. During this time, she spent two years in Shanghai to establish the practice in China.

In 2007, she returned from Shanghai to assume the role of country managing director for Accenture. Her passion for building new businesses for Accenture led her to also assume the APAC leadership role to startup two new practices—one for Analytics and the other for Sustainability Services. In October 2011, she assumed her current role of geographic unit managing director for ASEAN.

Outside of Accenture, Lay Lim serves a member of the Future Economy Council and co-chairs the Modern Services Sub-Committee for the FEC. She is also a member of the Board of Directors for the Institute for HR Professionals, and the Board of Advisors for the School of Information Systems at the Singapore Management University. Her past contributions include:

- Steering Committee member for the Services & Digital Economy Technology Roadmap of IMDA in 2018;
- Steering Committee member of the National Infocomm & Media Masterplan Steering Committee in 2013 (and co-chair of the Sectorial Transformation Workgroup);
- Member of the Sub-Committee on Future Corporate Capabilities and Innovation, which is one of the sub-groups on the Committee on the Future Economy (CFE); and
- Board member of the Singapore Land Authority and the Council for the Third Age.
