30 43Y.—(1) This section applies to a company —

5 (b) the ordinary shares of which are already listed on a stock exchange outside Singapore, and which issues new ordinary shares which are first listed on a stock exchange in Singapore and offered for public subscription,

10 where the date of listing on the stock exchange in Singapore in paragraph (a) or (b) (called the listing date) falls within the period from 19 February 2025 to 31 December 2027 (both dates inclusive).

(2) The company may apply to the Minister or an authorised body to be approved for the purposes of this section.

15 (3) An application under subsection (2) must be made within 90 days after the listing date or such further period as the Minister or authorised body may allow, and must be accompanied by such information and documents as the Minister or authorised body may require.

20 (4) A financial sector incentive company that is approved as such under section 43J(1)(c) is not eligible to make an application under subsection (2).

25 (5) The Minister or authorised body may, subject to such conditions (including conditions subsequent) as the Minister or authorised body may impose, approve a company as an approved company for the purposes of this section.

(6) An approval under subsection (5) is for a single period of 5 years (called in this section the incentive period) starting from the first day of the month in which the listing date falls.

30 (7) No approval under this section may be granted after 31 December 2027.

(8) The following is to be made to an approved company:

(a) in a case mentioned in subsection (1)(a) — a rebate of 20% of the tax payable by the approved company for each year of assessment the basis period of which falls within its incentive period;

(b) in a case mentioned in subsection (1)(b) — a rebate of 10% of the tax payable by the approved company for each year of assessment the basis period of which falls within its incentive period.

(9) If only a part of the basis period of an approved company for any year of assessment falls within its incentive period, the rebate for that year of assessment is computed using the formula

$A \times \frac{B}{C}$ , where —

(a) A is the rebate mentioned in subsection (8)(a) or (b) (as the case may be) for that year of assessment;

(b) B is the number of months in that part of the basis period, rounded up to the nearest number of months; and

(c) C is the total number of months in the basis period for that year of assessment.

(10) The rebate to be made for each year of assessment must not exceed —

(a) if the approved company has a market capitalisation of at least $1 billion on the listing date — $6 million; or

(b) if the approved company has a market capitalisation of less than $1 billion on the listing date — $3 million.

(a) nominate for the approval of the Minister or authorised body, no more than 3 of its subsidiaries that are wholly owned (directly or indirectly) by the company (each called in this section a wholly-owned subsidiary) to which the rebate is to be made; and

(b) specify the order of priority in which the rebate is to be made to the nominees under subsection (20).

5 (13) If any nominee approved by the Minister or authorised body is in liquidation, ceases to carry on a trade or business in Singapore or ceases to exist at any time in the basis period of a year of assessment, then the nomination of that nominee is treated as revoked as of the first day of that basis period in which 10 the date of commencement of the liquidation or cessation falls.

(14) If any nominee approved by the Minister or authorised body is not a wholly-owned subsidiary of the approved company concerned at any time in the basis period of a year of assessment, then the nomination of that nominee is treated as revoked as of 15 the first day of that basis period.

(15) In a case mentioned in subsection (13), the approved company may within 30 days after the date on which the nominee commences liquidation or the date of the cessation, or such further period as the Minister or authorised body may allow,
20 apply to the Minister or authorised body for the approval of another of its wholly-owned subsidiaries as a nominee.

(16) In a case mentioned in subsection (14), the approved company may within 30 days after the date on which the nominee first ceases to be a wholly-owned subsidiary of the company, or such further period as the Minister or authorised body may allow, apply to the Minister or authorised body for the approval of another of its wholly-owned-subsidaries as a 25 nominee.

(17) An approval of the replacement nominee is effective from the date the original nomination is treated as revoked.
30

(18) A financial sector incentive company that is approved as such under section 43J(1)(c) may not be nominated under subsection (12)(a), (15) or (16).

(19) The application under subsection (15) or (16) must be accompanied by such information and documents as the Minister or authorised body may require.

5 (20) Where an approval is granted in respect of one or more nominees of an approved company, the rebate to be made to the approved company (as determined by subsections (8) to (10)) is instead to be made —

- (a) first against the tax payable by the approved company in a year of assessment; and
- 10 (b) then against the tax payable by those approved nominees in the same year of assessment in the order of priority specified by the company under subsection (12)(b),

15 until the applicable maximum amount of rebate under subsection (10)(a) or (b) is reached; and subsections (8) and (9) apply with the necessary modifications to the making of the rebate to the tax payable by a nominee as they apply to the making of the rebate to the tax payable by the company.

20 (21) Any rebate of tax made to an approved company or any of its nominees is recoverable by the Comptroller from the approved company or the nominee as a debt due to the Government if the shares of the approved company are delisted from the stock exchange in Singapore at any time during its incentive period.

25 (22) For the purpose of subsection (21) —

- (a) the amount recoverable is payable within one month after the service of a notice on the approved company or the nominee or such further time as the Comptroller may allow, subject to such terms and conditions as the Comptroller may impose, and in the manner stated in the notice; and
- 30 (b) sections 87(1) and (2), 89 and 90 apply to the collection and recovery by the Comptroller of that amount as they apply to the collection and recovery of tax.

(23) Section 105R applies to a failure to comply with a condition of approval of an approved company under this section with the following modifications:

(a) a reference to a tax incentive is to a rebate under this section;

(b) a reference to the application of a tax incentive to a person's income is to the making of a rebate under this section to any tax payable by the approved company or its nominee;

the following subsection applies in place of section 105R(6):

“(6) Where —

(a) a rebate has been made against the tax payable by the approved company or its nominee for a year of assessment;

(b) the rebate would not have been so made if the company had not been an approved company under this section on any date in the basis period for that year of assessment; and

(c) the approval is revoked under this section with effect from and including that date, any rebate of the tax so made is recoverable by the Comptroller as a debt due to the Government by the company or the nominee.”.

(24) In this section, the first listing of ordinary shares of a company on a stock exchange includes a relisting of ordinary shares of that company on that stock exchange for public subscription, at any time after ordinary shares of that company have been delisted from that stock exchange.
