

HOW DO SINGAPOREANS BENEFIT FROM TAXES?

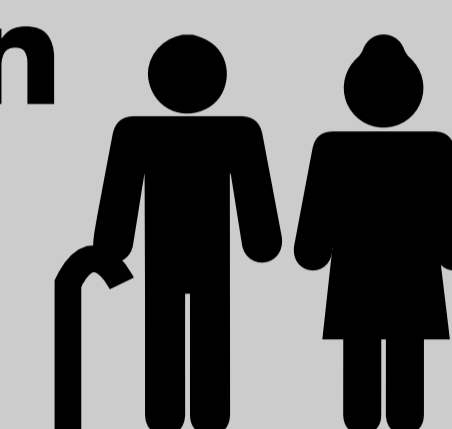

Singaporeans benefit from taxes in many ways. For example:

1 Healthcare

Singaporeans enjoy up to 75% subsidy for subsidised medications at Specialist Outpatient Clinics and polyclinics.

The Pioneer Generation Package and the Merdeka Generation Package provide additional subsidies for healthcare for life.

2 Education

The Government subsidises over 90% of the total cost of education.

On average, every child would have received over $130,000 of education subsidies by the time they complete secondary school.

3 Security

Singapore is one of the safest countries in the world through our steadfast investment in security.

4 Housing

On top of subsidised purchase prices for new HDB flats, first-timer applicants can receive up to $80,000 in grants for new flats, or up to $160,000 in grants for resale flats.

5 Jobs

Citizens enjoy up to 90% subsidy for courses supported by SkillsFuture Singapore (SSG).

There are more than 100 Professional Conversion Programmes (PCPs) to help Singaporeans take on careers in new growth areas.

The Government puts Singaporeans at the centre of our strategies, and plans for the long term. Public spending is about supporting our people, and achieving good public outcomes.
